DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION

COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT

"Take this letter please," may be heard the sixth period when the class meets in C-8. On the blackboard is mysterious writing which looks very puzzling, but can easily be read by those who know the principles of shorthand. In the next room the bookkeeping class is keeping account of every penny. Throughout the day you may hear the click, click, click of the typewriters as students are taking a speed test or endeavoring to make perfect copies.

ENGLISH

Grammer is considered the more important part of the English course. It is based largely upon the ability to write and to speak correctly. A study of types of all literature is also presented. English offers three years in addition to senior English which includes annual, Pow Wow, play direction and oral expression.

SCIENCE

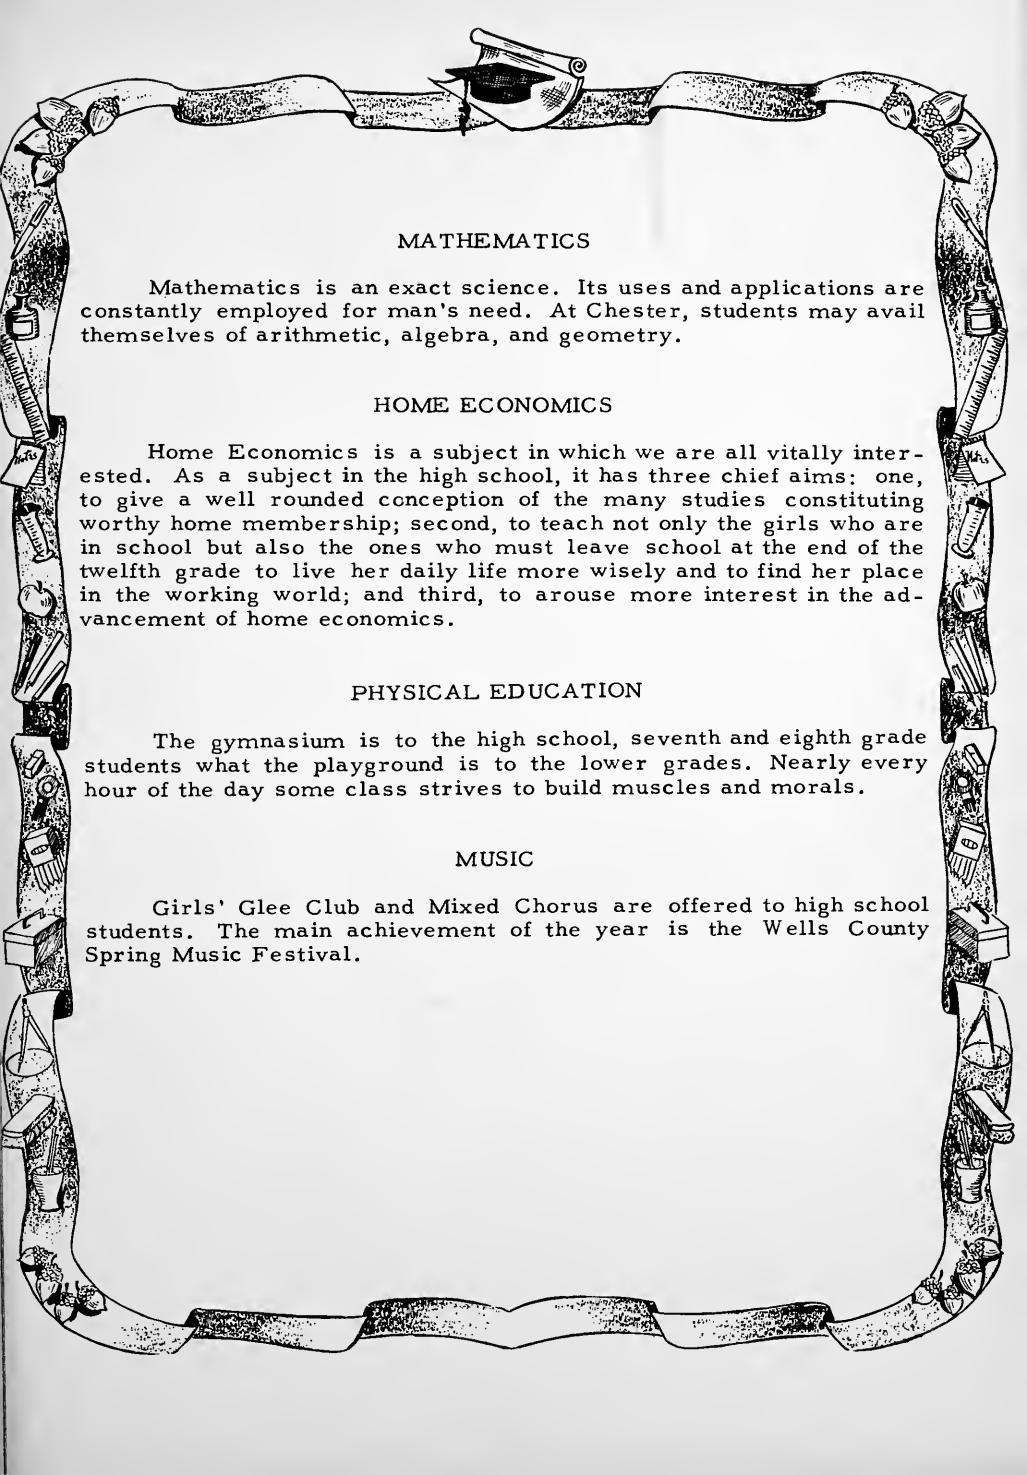

Each high school student in Indiana is required to have one year of science training before graduation. It teaches one of the great principles of life. Our system offers general science, geography, physics, and biology.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Sociology was studied this year by a senior group, and much interest was shown in the social problems of the day. Experiments gave the students a clearer understanding of social relations.

AGRICULTURE

Agriculture consists of boys who want to be Future Farmers of America. They study about live stock, machinery, and crop growing.

MATHEMATICS

Mathematics is an exact science. Its uses and applications are constantly employed for man's need. At Chester, students may avail themselves of arithmetic, algebra, and geometry.

HOME ECONOMICS

Home Economics is a subject in which we are all vitally interested. As a subject in the high school, it has three chief aims: one, to give a well rounded conception of the many studies constituting worthy home membership; second, to teach not only the girls who are in school but also the ones who must leave school at the end of the twelfth grade to live her daily life more wisely and to find her place in the working world; and third, to arouse more interest in the advancement of home economics.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The gymnasium is to the high school, seventh and eighth grade students what the playground is to the lower grades. Nearly every hour of the day some class strives to build muscles and morals.

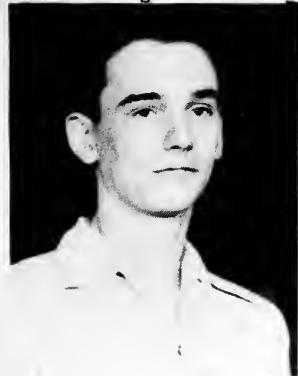

MUSIC

Girls' Glee Club and Mixed Chorus are offered to high school students. The main achievement of the year is the Wells County Spring Music Festival.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September 1936, we climbed in our B-17 and started our flight in the first grade with Miss Mildred Carnes (Mrs. Lowell Noe) piloting our plane.

Our co-pilots during our primary grades were Beatrice Cochran, Mary Hoop, Margaret Burns, Mary Holloway and Delmar Harrold.

We climbed to a higher altitude and finally landed in front of the Chester High School, and twenty-three green freshmen bailed out and went inside. Wandering around they finally found their places. Before many days the green wore off and they showed signs of becoming real students.

Those still staying in the air were Crystal Bennett, Donna Bennett, Helen Carnes, Joan Davidson, Tom Ford, Bill Fuller, Ronald McDonald, Fred Highlen, Betty Jamison, Pat Lincoln, Don McDonald, Ruby Miller, Vera Mounsey, Barbara Reff, Daniel Sills, Jean Smith, Dorothy Stockton, Joy Teagle, Dorothy Wheeler, and Josephine Velasquez.

Since three of the classmates did not return in our Sophomore year a Stinson Voyager was large enough to carry the rest. Mr. Diehm was our sponsor. We received our class rings during this year.

The Junior class arrived at the Chester Center school in a new Jet Propelled plane. We were sorry to find out that some of our classmates were not in the plane. The first landing of the year was the Junior class play, "Sunbonnet Jane from Sycamore Lane," under the direction of Mrs. Foy.

On the morning of August 25, 1947 the sound of a motor was heard and everyone was greatly surprised to see a mammoth airship landing on the school yard. Twenty seniors climbed out to begin their last year at C. C. H. S. We elected our class sponsor, Mrs. Foy. During this year Charles Riggs left us, and Albert Foreman joined the army, which left eighteen to finish the flight.

Our class play, "Calamity Kids," a hilarious rural-life comedy by Jay Tobias was presented Wednesday and Thursday nights, April 21 and 22. The play, directed by Mrs. Foy, included eleven cast members, namely, Crystal Bennett, Joe Sleepy, Helen Carnes, Joan Davidson, Ronald Glessner, Bill Fuller, Jean Smith, Joy Teagle, Barbara Reff, Vera Mounsey, Donald McDonald.

Our money making projects included: the selling of purple and gold, jersey T shirts; magazines through Curtis Publishing Company; ice cream during the noon hours; and Indian head car stickers. On March 5 the class prepared and served 1200 lunches for the annual county Dairy institute held in the Bluffton Community Building.

During the first semester, the class enjoyed a hay ride which was followed with a social hour and light refreshments at the school house. On March 12 the class enjoyed a three course hamburger steak dinner at the school house.

Members of the senior journalism class published the annual, "The War Whoop," and the school paper, "The Pow Wow." In order to raise money for the latter project, the class sold personalized stationery. On January 21 they sponsored the three-one act plays, "Polishing Henry," "Wildcat Willie," and a minstrel, "Way Down South."

Senior day was observed Thursday, April 22, with kid day being enjoyed the following day.

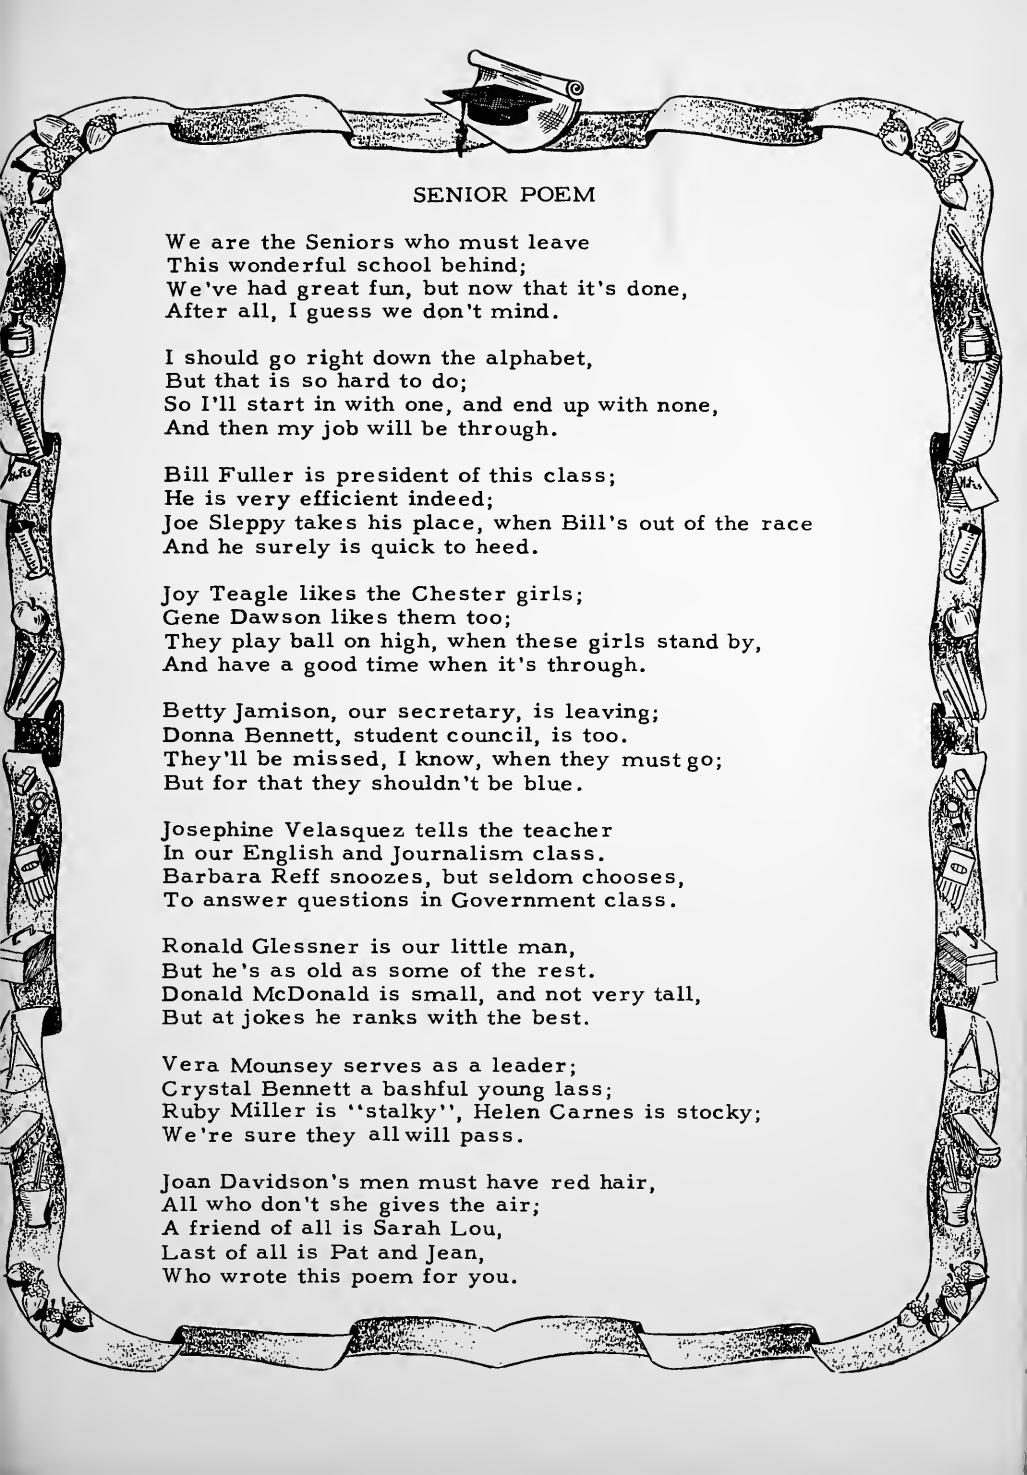

The Baccalaureate sermon was delivered by the Reverend J. Ulman Miller, of the First Baptist Church, of Bluffton, on Sunday evening, April 25. Dr. Tennyson Guyer, a lecturer and pastorate, of Ohio City, Ohio, delivered the Commencement address Friday, April 30, in the high school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

During the first week of May our senior class itinerary included Washington, D. C., New York, and Niagara Falls. The trip was sponsored by Mrs. Foy and Principal H. C. Settle.

SENIOR POEM

We are the Seniors who must leave
This wonderful school behind;
We've had great fun, but now that it's done,
After all, I guess we don't mind.

I should go right down the alphabet,
But that is so hard to do;
So I'll start in with one, and end up with none,
And then my job will be through.

Bill Fuller is president of this class;
He is very efficient indeed;
Joe Sleppy takes his place, when Bill's out of the race
And he surely is quick to heed.

Joy Teagle likes the Chester girls;
Gene Dawson likes them too;
They play ball on high, when these girls stand by,
And have a good time when it's through.

Betty Jamison, our secretary, is leaving;
Donna Bennett, student council, is too.
They'll be missed, I know, when they must go;
But for that they shouldn't be blue.

Josephine Velasquez tells the teacher
In our English and Journalism class.
Barbara Reff snoozes, but seldom chooses,
To answer questions in Government class.

Ronald Glessner is our little man,
But he's as old as some of the rest.
Donald McDonald is small, and not very tall,
But at jokes he ranks with the best.

Vera Mounsey serves as a leader;
Crystal Bennett a bashful young lass;
Ruby Miller is "stalky", Helen Carnes is stocky;
We're sure they all will pass.

Joan Davidson's men must have red hair,
All who don't she gives the air;
A friend of all is Sarah Lou,
Last of all is Pat and Jean,
Who wrote this poem for you.

Senior Prophecy

April 11, 1958

Dear Diary,

An old school pal of mine Bill Fuller, played a very spectacular game tonight with the Zollner Pistons. Congratulating him on his fine performance, he revealed his intentions for organizing an independent team called the Keystone Kagers.

April 12, 1958

Unrevealing Friend,

I called on Joanne (Davidson) Henry today. Joanne gave up the idea of being a nurse when Click revealed his plans for the future. She is now playing maid to her own three bff-springs.

April 13, 1958

Confiding Friend,

Upon entering Nummer's Garage in Montpelier I noticed a very nerve-racked office girl struggling through the pages of a well worn twentieth century bookkeeping book. I finally recognized her as Jean Smith who is business manager for her husband Charles.

April 14, 1958

Dear Diary,

Ronald Glessner, who was to be guest speaker at the luncheon for successful dairy-men, was unable to attend. He had to milk all 400 of his pure-bred Jerseys by hand following a wind storm which cut off all electric power.

April 15, 1958

Dear Pal,

Vera Mounsey, planned to be a secretary, but after a month's consideration, decided she would rather let Bill be the boss and sit on his knee. She reported the main color scheme in their newly-built cottage would be Lancaster green and b-hester gold.

April 16, 1958

To you alone,
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Grimm returned to b-hester Township from their home in Texas, for a month's vacation. Mr. Grimm owns a chain of grapefruit ranches. Mrs. Grimm, Judy Jamison, is working on an experiment to raise seedless grapefruit.

April 17, 1958

Trust,

Another one of my patriotic minded friends, Joe Sleepy, having decided he preferred his head in the clouds, is now flying his K-13 super fortress on a non-stop flight from Keystone to Mt. Zion. Joe is still single, but is well known for his beautiful air hostesses which he employs.

april 18, 1958

Dear Diary,
Josephine Vilasquez has opened a home talent theater at the corner of Plum and Vine Streets in Keystone. She asserted the proceeds from this months production will be contributed to the funds for a new gym at Chester Center.

april 19, 1958

Dearest Diary,
Sarah Glinson says it won't be long until the wedding bells will be ringing, as her fiance Charles Garrett has received a patent on his Helicopter. It has taken him ten long years to finish his streamlined experiment, but Sarah has waited patiently for his success.

april 20, 1958

Dearest,
My poor little fuzzy kitten got a fish bone lodged in his neck today. Thanks to the very talented assistance of Joy Beagle, the Chester Township Veterinarian, kitty survived after he removed the bone in record time.

april 21, 1958

Dear Friend,
Crystal Bennett has just been presented the Arwell award for her latest novel "Hearts that Throb". Crystal was inspired to write books while deciding which it would be - Jim, Carl or Jade.

april 22, 1958

Secret Companion,
Helen Barnes, teacher of the second grade at Chester Center, supervised an excellent performance tonight at the monthly P.T.A. meeting. In her spare time she devoted herself to the care and feeding Poland-China hogs.

april 23, 1958

Secret Memory,

I am very livell pleased with my new hair-do arranged by Barbara Riff. She explained to me the new solution which she has just developed for making stubborn hair more natural. Barbara is planning a grand opening for her new Beauty Saloon in Bellville which will employ 26 persons.

april 24, 1958

Loyal Friend,

Of all the people who did I run across today but Elow McDonald. He seems to be very contented on his 160 acre turnip farm, now that he's met the girl of his dreams through a lonelyhearts club. The McDonalds have just been admitted to the United Turnip Growers Association.

april 25, 1958

Secret pal,

While shopping this morning in the Stroud Super Market, I had a long chat with Mrs. Harry Stroud, formerly Pat Lincoln. She should be having a very successful business. Mrs. Stroud announced they were having a special this week on steel, sure catch mouse traps.

april 26, 1958

My dear Friend,

I was overjoyed today to receive a letter from slaman first class, Gene Clawson. He has covered the four corners of the world since joining the navy immediately following graduation. Using his old school custom, he has a girl in every port.

april 27, 1958

My confidence,

A very lovely cover is portrayed by Clonna Bennett on this month's Esquire magazine. She was inspired to paint this picture from the native scenes of Tennessee where she lives with her husband.

Secret Pal,

The stork caused a pleasant surprise today when he delivered two roly-poly babies on the door-step of Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Shepard. The mother, the former
Ruby Miller, named the twins Perry
Van and Sherry Ann.

april 28, 1958

Friend,

Reminiscing with the class sponsor of 1948, I learned she had retired from teaching since she sold her
'28 Chevrolet to the Chicago Museum.
She reviewed that she left her department in good shape because after ten long years the typewriter repair man finally arrived. Mrs.
Foy says she misses the students
very much.

april 29, 1958

Dear Diary,

It was just 10 years ago today that the class of 1948 was handed their diplomas and walked out the doors of C. C. H. S. to make their way in the world.

They have proved to be successful in the past and we wish them much more happiness and success in the future.

Roll Upsets Unbeaten Chester Indians

Beat Roll and Pacers For Third Tourney Title

Montpelier Loses In Final By 50 to 37 Score After Rollers Trim Bulldogs In Consolation

The grimly-efficient Chester Center Indians, confident and steady, and who seldom are at their best until the late stages of a contest, defeated the game and vastly-improved Montpelier Pacers, Saturday night, in the final of the 16th-annual Montpelier "blind" tournament before a near-capacity throng of 1,200 fans. The score was 50 to 37.

For Al Spandau's winners, it was their third title. Others came in 1937 and 1942. Saturday's double triumph ran the Indians' undefeated string to eight, with an overall record of 22 wins in 33 games over a two-year period.

Entering the tourney as co-favorites with Roll's unbeaten and fast-breaking Rollers, the Indians slowed them down from their usual game and won the second matinee contest, 34 to 24, after winless Montpelier, rated by most fans as likely to finish last, flashed its best form of the year to down Pennville, the 1946 champion, 46 to 35.

Montpelier Bows Before Chester, Score 54 to 22

Montpelier's Pacers and the Chester Center Indians got together in another of the long series of rivalry battles. Wednesday night, on the Montpelier floor but the outcome was the most one-sided since athletic relations between the schools were first established in 1923-24.

The 1947 Bluffton sectional champions were the victors, 54 to 22, a margin of 32 points, and it was by that same margin the Pacers triumphed as the quintets met for the first time when the Chester school had just been completed and its athletic program had been inaugurated.

of which fell through for a .261 shooting average, and the Pacers took 62 heaves, sinking nine for an average of .145.

At the foul line, the winners also had the best average, sinking eight of 15 chances, as against Montpelier's four of 16.

Chester Reserves Win

Hamilton scored 21 points as the Chester reserves won the preliminary from the Montpelier reserves, 35 to 25. It was also the fourth straight win for the conquerors.

The winners were ahead 3 to 4, 12 to 10, and 26 to 15 at the end of the first three periods.

Al Spandau's Chester Center Indians chalked up another victory, Friday night, when they beat Raymond Garrett's Pennville Bulldogs, 45 to 31, on the Montpelier floor.

The win was five in a row this season for the 1947 Bluffton sectional winners, and the 26th win in 30 games since Spandau took over a year ago.

The loud explosion which violently rocked the northern part of Blufford county Friday night was the bursting of the Chester Indian balloon. A jammed-packed faculty, perhaps the largest ever to long on a net contest in the Roll gymnasium, saw it happen. Riding a 16-game winning streak, which included a convincing 34 to 24 victory over the same Rollers five in the "Big Nine" of the Montpelier "blind" tourney, the Indians hit rock bottom in losing their first con-

Montpelier Loses on Open Floor, 40-29

To 29 Friday Night

Chester Center's Indians, after two defeats following a 10-game win streak, bounced back on the victory trail Friday night, as they downed the Montpelier Pacers for the third time this season.

The score was 40-29, and although the game was played on the Montpelier court, it was a "home" contest for the Wells County agriculture team which uses the floor for all of its games.

Redskins Take Fourth Title In Eight Years By Beating Petroleum

With their fourth Bluffton sectional crown tucked away, Al Spandau's Chester Center Indians were back at practice, Monday, preparing for their regional test at Huntington next Saturday against Portland's one-powered Panthers.

The Indians beat an old rival, Petroleum, 30 to 25, in Saturday night's final, for their second successive title, and their fourth in eight years. Others came in 1940, and 1947.

Chester, Center and Portland play the 2:30 p.m. game following the Huntington-Hartford Center clash at 1:15 p.m. The regional trip is first for the Decatur sectional winner.

their march to the championship, the warriors turned back a well-improved Bluffton club, 48 to 36, in the first game, and then Lancster Central in the first afternoon semi-final, Saturday, 20.

Chester Warriors Win In Clash, Unbeaten Teams

Two of Wells county's top-flight unbeaten teams clashed on the Montpelier floor, Friday night, and the smoke had cleared away from the rivalry tilt, Chester Center, 1947 Bluffton sectional winner, led the score, 30 to 23. Eldon Osborn's Petroleum Panthers were losers.

Indians Down Swayzee Five

After several weeks of mediocre ball, with only flashes of form shown, of which they are capable, Chester Center's Indians snapped out of their lethargic ways, Saturday night on the Montpelier floor, to trim the tough and big Swayzee Speedsters, 36 to 31.

The win was the 14th in 17 games for the 1947 Bluffton sectional champs.

Chester Rallies To Defeat Lions

Chester Center Wins Ninth Game In a Row

Chester Center Indians had tomahawks all sharpened for the Bearcats at Montpelier, Friday night, and what had been expected as a close contest, turned into a complete rout as the Gold-clads plowed the ball through the hoop at will. The score was 60 to 42. For Al Spandau's warriors, this win was the ninth consecutive of the season, and for Ossie's veteran team, the fourth in nine games.

Sectional Honor Team

The boys on the Sectional honor team were: Joe Sleppy, Gene Dawson, and Bill Fuller. Joy Teagle received honorable mention.

Bill Fuller was placed on the Regional second team which was his third regional trip--believed to be a state record for small schools. He was on the team in 1945 and 1947 when the Indians won at Bluffton, and last year was named on the all Regional team.

TRACK TEAM

Last year, 1946-47, was Chester Center's first year for track which may account for the lack of experienced trackmen and being low point school in the area. The meets were held on the Montpelier trackfield.

Their record was not great, but they did their best and gained a lot of knowledge that ought to take them through in fine shape next season.

WAR WHOOP STAFF

The seniors were rather discouraged this year as to whether they could publish an annual because of the increase in prices and the shortage of materials.

A short playlet written by Jean Smith, Patty Lincoln, and Barbara Reff was given at an assembly meeting to launch the drive which met with great success, as we reached more than our quota of 125 subscriptions.

On September 21, the staff was announced and immediately set to work collecting material for the annual.

POW WOw STAFF

Senior class of 1948 sent out their first publication of the school paper, "The Pow Wow," on September 31, "The Pow Wow" is published monthly by the Senior English class under the direction of Mrs. Kershner and printed by the Bluffton Printery. "The Pow Wow" was created in 1933 to arouse and promote literary interest, furnish journalistic experience, and increase school spirit.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council, a representative body of the entire school, purpose is to regulate all student activities outside the regular curriculum. The council sponsored an all school Hallowe'en carnival which netted $363 with proceeds being divided among the classes, clubs, Pow Wow, and P. T. A. on a percentage basis of yearly expenditures.

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club is one of the larger clubs in Chester Center High School and its good effect is consequently rather far reaching. The club has as its creed to boost all school functions; second to boost all branches of athletics; third, to be always a part of and always for the school.

A motion was made and unanimously carried for a fee of ten cents to be placed on each member in order to secure a free throw trophy. It was decided to award this trophy to the boy making the highest per centage of attempted free throws during the season.

The money making projects of the year was selling sleeve emblems and sponsoring a booster bus to all ball games. The annual P. T. A.-Booster Club Basketball Supper was held on March 23. Principal Harold Dick was guest speaker.

Officers for the year were as follows: President, Bill Fuller; Vice President, Pat Meyer; Secretary and Treasury, Nellie Mae Stinson.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The purpose of our Sunshine society is to: (1) make our community a safer and more beautiful place in which to live, (2). to inspire higher ideals for high school girls, (3) to spread sunshine and good cheer, (4) to train girls for active citizenship by giving to churches and homes which are in need.

The years program included a candle-light formal initiation for eleven new members with their Mothers, as guests. They sponsored a coronation ceremony for a Halloween Carnival Queen.

In November they had a chili supper held for the members's fathers. On Hallowe'en, Christmas, Valentine Day, and Easter cut-out motifs were made for hospital trays. Per capita tax money was raised for the Riley Hospital by presenting three one act plays January 21st.

The main feature of February was a Valentine's tea for their mothers at which Mrs. Simpson gave a talk on "Korea". The talk was based on facts sent by her daughter, Hollis, who is living there with her husband and children. Mr. Vernon delivered the address at the all school Easter service.

In April election and installation of '48-'49 officers was held during the banquet for our secret ideal ladies. Our guest speaker was our state dean, Mrs. H. L. Hollenbach, who gave an inspirational Sunshine review, "Who are We?"

The clubs projects were exhibited during the Bluffton Free Street Fair held September 24-27. GALLOPING GHOSTS

Ghosts galloped before a capacity audience on October 21 and 22, as a cast of eleven directed by Mrs. Ghlee Kershner, presented their junior night performance. Miss Mary Burns, class sponsor, acted as business manager.

Eddie Carnes, as Phil Barton, and Pat Meyer, his sister, played an excellent performance as typical teen agers trying continuously to frighten their two beloved aunts, Miss Elizabeth Barton, Betty Williams and Mrs. Melinda Todd, Hulda Emshwiller. Kay Mounsey, as Richard Barton, attempts to hide gold for his aunt, Miss Elizabeth Barton, to find. Darlene Lancaster, playing opposite him, in the role of Berkley Barton, showed fine acting ability. In the lesser roles, but tying for acting honors, were, Jack Meyers, as Thomas Barton, who was Miss Elizabeth Barton's serious nephew, Irene Lowry as Marie Farril, engaged to Thomas, and Paul Dean Wamsley, as Stephen Dykes, in love with Pat. Adding much to the mysterious atmosphere was Madam Dupre, a clairvoyant, as played by Mona Jean Speece and Albert, her accomplice, alias Bill Slentz.

Mrs. Ghlee Kershner directed the plays with an executive staff of journalism class members. The program was well received and was given in a very creditable and pleasing manner, much talent being displayed by each member of the cast.
